Dietz's Diamond Oil.

WE NOW OFFER TO THE PUBLIC in full confidence a new article of KEROSENE OIL,
Which we warrant in every particular to be Superior to any other Oil ever brought to the San Francisco market. It has been thoroughly tested in all the choicest Patent Coal Oil Burners, and found to produce
More Light and Burn Longer
by one-third, than any other oil in use.
Among the many advantages of this KEROSENE OIL over other oils are: First that it is perfectly NON-EXPLOSIVE, and can be used with perfect safety in all kinds of LAMPS. Second, It is free from all objectionable and unpleasant smells, and burns with a clear white brilliant flame. We confidently look at the public and LAMPLIGHTS to give this Oil a trial, and when tried we feel confident it will gain a preference over all other fluid or camphene as well as its superior burning qualities.
In order to protect ourselves against Counterfeits we have placed a brand on each can and cask, which will be known as
DIETZ'S DIAMOND OIL.
It is now offered at wholesale and retail at 305 Front street,
Between Washington and Jackson streets,
And at Branch Stores, 56 Second street, 2d door from the Museum, San Francisco.

WEDNESDAY MORNING JUNE 11 1862

Eastern Emigration

We have letters from Capt Grenfell charged with the command of the Overland Emigration the present year dated at Washington, March 19 He was then nearly ready to leave for the frontier He anticipates a large emigration to Oregon The escort is designed to follow and protect the rear trains

The difficulties which occurred recently with Indians usually take place on the west of Fort Hall We understand that it is the design of Col Steinberger to send a company of cavalry to meet the emigrants at Fort Hall

We learn also, that some apprehensions are entertained at St Louis for Fort Hall We are of the opinion that many parties will take that route to Oregon and Washington and that the advantages of the Malheur and Mullan's mountain road, as a route for emigration, will be thoroughly tested this summer

We notice some letters in the Times from Mr. H M Thompson, of St Louis, who has represent that there has been established in that city an "American Exploring and Mining Company," with a capital of $100,000 to be increased to $500,000 The object of the company is said to be, to send parties to Oregon and Washington, for the purpose of exploring for gold and other precious minerals, and also to locate lands pre-empt &c. have them properly bounded, surveyed and entered upon the Government records '—Now, it seems to us that if this is not a humbug company and project, it is one of a worse character Thompson's great object evidently is to sell tickets for deck passage on the steamboats which are advertised to leave St Louis for the Falls of the Missouri He does not tell us that the Company, of which he proposes to be agent, own the boats—but he is very particular to say to the editor of the Times, and through him to the people hereabouts—that he sells tickets for deck passage at $40—that he won't sell a ticket to any person who will not send to him certificates of their good moral character &c Thompson closes one of his letters as follows

"By sending the money, we will secure you a cabin or deck passage as desired and forward you tickets for the same, by mail or otherwise as ordered U S Treasury notes or good current funds must be sent at your own risk by mail or express rate money for Agent's fees"

Mr Thompson sends out this communication from St Louis under date of April 21 for publication in the Times and states in the same communication that the steamers will leave St Louis for Fort Benton on or about the first of May He tells us that "early application is necessary made, to secure berths" Does it all this appear very much like a humbug? But to ridiculous for a swindle

We are of the opinion that several steamboats have left or will leave St Louis Fort Benton with emigrants the present month If the boats are small and the river is at a good stage they will be able to reach Fort Benton It is hard to speculate on the subject Passengers from Fort Benton from St Louis can be traveling —and a test of this question will be made this summer—but this will be found to make the route expeditious and comfortable but until we have a rail road over the mountains nine tenths of the emigrants to Oregon and Washington will be compelled to reach this coast by the overland route

We have strong hopes, that on this route the Pacific Railroad Bill has passed the two Houses of Congress and has been signed by the President—and that it is now a law it will hereafter be made a profitable route to the people of Oregon and Washington Territory

SECTIONAL CHARACTERISTICS IN BATTLE.—It is curious to notice the different ways of fighting, no characteristic of their respective sections, adopted by Northern and Southern soldiers at the battle of Pittsburg Landing On Monday our advance was severely pressed The rebels, on the other hand, were dashing against our gallant lines, throwing themselves into the fight with reckless fury, and in the first day's fight to try it some where else Northern fire against Southern fire Northern steadiness against Southern dash were fairly tried that day and the French critic was right, and the Southerners went down

CHURCHES.—The Herald of Life publishes a list of the various religious denominations in San Francisco and Oakland which sums up as follows Presbyterian 5, Methodist E Church 4 do South 1 Episcopal, Protestant Episcopal 1, Episcopal Baptist, 2 Unitarian, 1, Disciples 1 Catholics, 4.

THE TROOPS.—This city and the lower Willamette and Columbia river valleys are now visited with a flood like that which the memory of the oldest inhabitant runneth not back unto" From Vancouver we learn that the Columbia rose at that place since Monday last, 14 inches The Willamette has risen about 7 inches within the last 24 hours A large portion of the lower part of this city is now under water in many places to the depth of 4 or 5 feet Front street is flooded for a mile from the Pioneer Hotel and is impassable for teams at the lower end. The upper part of Couch's wharf is nearly if not quite covered, and the merchants and traders in that section have been compelled to either ship their goods to higher ground or remove them to the upper stories or place them upon scaffolds We notice that the railroad men in transit on the Dalles and Cascades is being put on a good purpose in weighting down floors, walls and side walk, which would be all afloat were it not for this weight Embankments are being built in some portions of the city below, which will probably afford considerable protection It is feared that the waters have not yet reached their highest mark as we are informed that the present rise of the Columbia only comes from the Snake river branch, the upper Columbia not yet having began to raise. Should the summer rise of the main Columbia waters begin to flow before the Snake river rise runs down, the water below will yet rise several feet higher than they are at present A few more inches rise of the Willamette will cover the main business portion of our streets and do much damage to the city There is now but one farm house inundated on the Columbia river bottom from Vancouver to Monticello all others being compelled to abandon their homes for the highlands Houses, fencing and improvements of every description liable to float or wash away is fast being destroyed and many farmers will be seriously if not totally ruined financially This is the third year in succession that these bottoms have been overflowed proving a heavy loss to the people living upon them and very discouraging to their future prospects

FASHIONS.—Mrs W C Forbes will appear in public to-night in her new and charming role of Hamlet in which she is at once a favorite Mrs Forbes will also appear with Mr Hamilton and sing a couple of duets Mr Hamilton will also sing a solo and take a part in the "concert of concert" and take all in all we may expect that all who attend will be highly entertained and pleased with the performance "Come, everybody"

CITY.

MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

DAILY OREGONIAN may be had at the Front-street Store, and at Charles Barrett's, Front street.

4TH OF JULY.—We are sorry to announce the fact that from some unknown cause the Chairman and Secretary of the meeting of citizens which convened on Saturday evening last for the purpose of devising ways and means for the proper public celebration of the coming Fourth of July, did not make their appearance at the adjourned meeting on Monday night, and therefore no further action was taken. We hope that this commendable duty will not fail in this manner, but that our citizens will allow their patriotism to impel them to sufficient action as shall render the celebration as desirable and highly creditable re-union. We are confident that abundant means can be raised to defray the expenses of a grand celebration, and that hundreds of our citizens would cheerfully render all possible assistance in making the occasion even more imposing and patriotic than on last Fourth. We shall hope that Mayor Farrar will call the citizens together at an early evening, and keep the ball in motion.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—A man by the name of Brannan was perhaps fatally stabbed at Smith's Restaurant, corner of First and Washington streets, last evening, by a young man named Lincoln, said to be a relative of President Lincoln. It seems that Brannan had used some hard words against this Lincoln, and upon Lincoln's inquiry why he talked in such a manner, Brannan ran up and struck Lincoln with his fist, once or twice, whereupon Lincoln drew a knife and inflicted a deep and dangerous wound in the pit of the stomach of Brannan, and then made his escape. Dr. Brannan immediately started in pursuit, but up to the time of this writing, we had not learned whether he had been found. Brannan is said to be in a very critical condition, with little prospects of recovery.

"THE WEED."—Do you chew, smoke or snuff? If you do either, or all, as a matter of course you always want to use the best to be found in the market. Since this is the case, we know of no place in the city where you can procure a better or more genuine article of the "weed" than at our friend Wasserman's, on Front street, one door north of Seymour & Joynt's. They have just fitted up an extensive and well-selected stock of tobacco in every possible shape, and pipes of every desirable form and composition. Now, if you want to know how to enjoy the luxury as we do, you will not fail to patronize this establishment as we have done.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The business transacted in Court to-day in Court was of minor importance. Most of the day was occupied in filing pleas in pleadings, etc., preparatory to the coming trial of cases.

The State of Oregon vs. J. A. Levison, Robert Fry, and Andrew Hunter, charged upon certain indictments; defendants arraigned and allowed one day to plead.

GOVERNMENT SURVEYS.—Mr. E. Giddings, late Chief Clerk of Surveyor General's Office of Washington Territory, returned from the Columbia or eastern portion of Washington Territory, on the Julia, Monday evening last, where he has been on a tour of examination preparatory to the making out of a report to the General Land Office at Washington according to instructions received by the Surveyor General requiring that a report be forwarded, showing the lands that are necessary to be surveyed in that section for the accommodation of settlers. Mr. Giddings speaks highly of many portions of the country which he has passed over during his trip, and we trust not his report will contain many interesting and valuable facts connected with the topography of that country and its adaptation to agricultural pursuits. Mr. Giddings also confirms the highly flattering reports of the extraordinary richness of the mines of Salmon River and vicinity, which he saw worked and visited while on his tour.

GOLDEN SYRUP—SUGARS.

THE SAN FRANCISCO SUGAR REFINERY MAKES 1,000 Gallons of Golden Syrup FRESH every day. Also, Crushed, Color and Double Refined—much superior to Golden Syrup. Also, 40,000 lbs DAILY of Crushed, Powdered and Coffee Crushed Sugars, equal to any imported. The domestic establishment disburses six hundred thousand dollars per annum (for duty, coal and wages, to the State.) Its products for sale by all grocers.

AN INCIDENT IN THE ORIGIN OF SECESSION.—Andy Johnson delivered an address to the Third Minnesota Regiment, near Nashville on the 23d of April. The Nashville Union reports him as saying:

He knew the leaders of this rebellion well and intimately, both personally and politically, and he declared it was the firm determination of the rebel leaders to overthrow popular government, if they should succeed, and establish a despotism instead of our present liberal institutions. Clayton the Assistant Secretary of Howell Cobb, declared to him on one occasion, that the people of the South, as well as many at the North, were fully determined to submit to the election of no President who had sprung from the common people, as Abe Lincoln had.

The same paper says that Governor Johnson also said:

The voice of the overwhelming mass of the North, as well as some men out of ten who stood before him, was: 'We care nothing for your negroes; manage them as best suits yourselves, but the Union shall be preserved, and you must obey the laws.'

[This sentiment was confirmed and endorsed by the soldiers with deafening shouts of applause and cries of "That's so!"]

A WOMAN APPOINTED MAJOR.—The Peoria (Ill.) Transcript says that Governor Yates has paid a rather unusual but well merited compliment to Mrs. Reynolds, wife of Lieut. Reynolds of Company A, Seventeenth Illinois, and a resident of that city. The following are the circumstances of the case:

Mr. Reynolds has accompanied her husband through the greater part of the campaign through which the Seventeenth has passed, sharing with him the dangers and privations of a soldier's life. She was present at the battle of Pittsburg Landing, and like a ministering angel, attended to the wants of as many of the wounded and living soldiers as she could, thus winning the gratitude and esteem of the brave fellows by whom she was surrounded. Governor Yates, hearing of her heroic and praiseworthy conduct, presented her with a commission as Major in the army, the document conferring the well merited honor being made out with all due formality, and having attached the great seal of the State. Probably no lady in America will ever again have such a distinguished military honor conferred upon her. Mrs. Reynolds was in Peoria, and was to leave to join her regiment in a day or two.

Fashionable folks have ceased to marry. Now, according to Jenkins and his imitators "they form a matrimonial alliance" upon which Susan Jane writes to Punch to inquire "if such an alliance is to be considered offensive and defensive?" Mr. Punch ventures to reply—"offensive when difficulty or misfortune is to be attacked and overcome; defensive, when sorrow or sickness prevails and expensive, when certain little parties, whether or not, will join in the compact."

CONSISTENCY.—A father never gains the affection of his children by refusing to decide their disputes, or settle them; but he loses a vast deal of their respect if he evades or shuns the subject. And those opinions expressed before the younger members of the family should be held consistently. It will not do to state one thing in theory, and allow or children to see you reverse it in practice daily and hourly; by such a method one thing is ensured—contempt, and contempt is mike fatal to love, respect, or imitation.

IRISH CLERGYMAN.—Mr. Luttrell mentions an Irish clergyman who was much offended at being called a pluralist and said: "I never don't take care you will find me a duelist." Sidney Smith took this up, and said: "I suppose there is scarcely a clergyman in Ireland who has not benefited." I am told they settle these matters when the afternoon's service is over. I have seen parsons challenge. Sunday me on the first Sunday after the epiphany."

ONE OF THE BOYS.—A man in stopping his paper recently wrote:—

"I thank folks dount ort to spend the money on papers, my father never did and every body said he was the smartest man in the kountree, and had the most ilegant assortment of buoys that ever dugg taters."

When prayer cannot prevail to keep a temporal mercy alive, yet it will have a powerful influence to keep thy heart alive when that flies.—Gurnal.

The advice given by an Irishman to his English friend on introducing him into a particular Tipperary row was, "Whatever you do, a head, hit."

The rhymer who wrote the line Dear to me is the turf tossed beach probably finds his mind the recollection of his bill at some sea side hotel.

It is said "the hare is one of the most timid animals yet it always dies game." Why shouldn't it, when it is made game of?

An eminent tectotaler would only consent to sit for his portrait on condition that he should be taken in water colors.

Tobacco chewing men and snuff taking women should be compelled to continue all their kissing to each other.
